

1 be so identified upon introduction, this was in a sense
2 a guaranty to the people that they would know what was 3 going on.

4 DELEGATE SCANLAN: Mr. Chairman?

5 DELEGATE JAMES: Delegate Scanlan.

6 DELEGATE SCANLAN. A question to the Chairman
7 of the committee.

8 DELEGATE JAMES: Will the Chairman yield?

9 DELEGATE KOSS: I yield.

10 DELEGATE SCANLAN: I understood in response to 11 a question put to the Chairlady by Delegate Bennett,
12 she answered that the amendment proposed by Delegate
13 Hostetter would present a greater danger to frustrating
14 the will of the General Assembly, but then in answering 15 the question put to her by Delegate Bamberger it seems 16 to indicate to me that her answer to Delegate Bennett 17 should have been no, rather than yes, because under 18 Delegate Hostetter's proposal, if the General Assembly
19 du ring the course of the legislative history decided 20 that legislation which had not been nonsuspendable
21 upon its introduction suddenly assumed the quality of
